| 937631 | LAW AND ORDER                                    | 37 frames color captions and manual |

These color, photo-illustrated filmstrips offer an interesting, well-documented account of the role of the R.C.M.P. in Canada — useful in studies of the community in primary grades and for discussion of civics and citizenship in higher grades. (Correlations with the curriculum of each province are suggested overleaf). Each filmstrip is accompanied by a fact-filled manual containing interesting historic detail and supplementary information.
